

Today's mediation between SWGS and CoSARC has been constructive. Each side has put forward proposals which the other wants to consider with their governing bodies.

The parties have agreed to continue discussions. In the meantime, the parties have agreed to make no further comment.